*Red Ranger meat chickens are much more “real-chicken-like” than the Cornish Cross and have fewer heart and leg issues. These birds do tend to raise out a little smaller. We’ll be raising a limited number of these birds this summer, so if you are hoping to reserve a quantity of birds for your freezer, now is the time to place your order!

The turkeys we’ll be raising this year are a mix of improved heritage types that we hatch on farm.

All birds are raised on pasture and fed a custom local grain mix that is free from antibiotics, growth hormones, and animal waste.

All poultry sales are direct and birds must be picked up on the farm.

Ordering Poultry for 2018

NEW! we are raising Red Ranger* meat chickens, instead of the crossbred Cornish variety. If you prefer the Cornish Cross, we have a surplus in the freezer from last summer, available at a discount to our Pre-Order club.
